Fourth Sunday of Easter

From the Pastor's Desk

The inaugural Borromeo Bash is on Saturday evening. The theme is "Livin the 80's." I actually lived the 80's. In 1982 I was in the 2nd grade at Epiphany Catholic School. I fondly remember my brief time at this school. I am grateful to my teacher who helped prepare me to receive Jesus' mercy in my first confession and His living Presence in my first Holy Communion.

Our teachers in the day and evening school have also prepared our 2nd graders for their first confession and their first Holy Communion next Saturday. I am grateful for all of their hard work. Please join me in thanking them.

I encourage you to think back to your first Holy Communion and who prepared you to receive Jesus. Whether or not you were in a Catholic school or whether it was before or after the 80's, the Borromeo Bash is an opportunity to celebrate Catholic education and support our Catholic school to help prepare our children to receive Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who knows each of us by name.

I hope to see you at this totally awesome event!

This weekend is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. It is on this weekend because it is also called Good Shepherd weekend. Just as Jesus laid down His life for His sheep, He still calls men and women to lay down their lives in service to their brothers and sisters in a religious vocation.

At confirmation, God gives us a special grace to begin to know our vocation. At the 10 AM Mass, kids from our parish will be in attendance with their parents. We will send them with a blessing and our prayers to the Cathedral where they will be confirmed on Tuesday evening. Let us also pray that they will be open to the vocation for which God has created them and to which He is calling each of them.

I love St. Catherine of Siena's quote; she once said, "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."

I'm not sure if Archbishop Bernard Hebda will be also celebrating the Confirmation Mass on Tuesday evening but, if he is, he will get a double dose of St. Charles parishioners. He is scheduled to offer Mass at our parish at 10 AM on Tuesday. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. As a result, there will be no 8 AM Mass on Tuesday.

Finally, I'd like you to join me in thanking our wonderful maintenance staff for clearing the snow from the April blizzard. They were here working hard all weekend. Thank you maintenance staff!

God bless,

Fr. Przybilla

SAINT CHARLES
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Dear St. Charles Parishioners,

I've enjoyed my last couple weeks of classroom observations. The St. Charles teachers really do foster a love for Jesus Christ and a love for learning. Being in classrooms might be the best part of my job. Sometimes I get bogged down with paperwork and staring at a screen; being with the kids reminds me of what we are up to and who is counting on us.

During the next three weeks, our students at St. Charles will take the NWEA MAP test. This is a test we take at the beginning of the school year and the end of a school year to measure growth and identify strengths and weaknesses.

Our students are tested in reading, math, and language, with each test taking approximately 50 minutes. We emphasize with our students and parents that these tests do not tell us who our children are, they are simply a tool we use to support and measure growth. We look forward to seeing our growth this year!

Saturday, April 21 is the very first Borromeo Bash and we anticipate a very full house! I look forward to reporting on this event next week.

May the Lord bless you and keep you warm,

Danny Kieffer
St. Charles Principal

News & Upcoming Events at Our Parish

TODAY! APRIL 22 IS THE 55TH ANNUAL WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS!

We are not victims of chance or swept up in a series of unconnected events; on the contrary, our life and our presence in this world are the fruit of a divine vocation! --Pope Francis

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Go to www.10000vocations.org to keep up to date on Vocations news and activities in the Archdiocese. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and consecrated life? Some ideas for prayer include:

- ◆ Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- ◆ Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- ◆ Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life.

Pray a rosary for more men and women in the Archdiocese to respond to God's call.

Next week: Welcome Sunday! (with donuts!)

In the saints one thing becomes clear: those who draw close to God do not withdraw from men but rather, become truly close to them. -Pope Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est

Sunday, April 29 is Welcome Sunday– that's next week! After the 10 am Mass, the St. Charles community will gather in Doran Hall to meet our new parishioners (and enjoy some donuts!) We all love Welcome Sunday, but nothing replaces one-on-one interactions. Here are three things you can do any time. Challenge yourself to do one each week!

- Sit in the middle of the pew, which encourages people to sit next to you.
 - Greet someone you recognize but have never talked with. Just smile and say, "Hi!" What could be easier?
 - Introduce yourself to someone you've never met. It can be very simple: "How are you? I don't think we've met. I'm ___."
- See you on April 29!*

"There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilizations—these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit—immortal horrors or everlasting splendours. This does not mean that we are to be perpetually solemn. We must play. But our merriment must be of that kind (and it is, in fact, the merriest kind) which exists between people who have, from the outset, taken each other seriously—no flippancy, no superiority, no presumption." C.S. Lewis

Community

Bethany House – Applications are now being accepted!

We are currently taking applications for women interested in Bethany House for September 2018 to May 2019, or for a shorter "Home for the 2018 Summer" program that begins in June and concludes in mid – August. Bethany House is a home for women who live in community, pray together, take meals together and discern whether they are called to consecrated life. It is sponsored by the Office of Vocations and is located in North East Minneapolis. Qualities of a good candidate for Bethany House include single women, ages 20 – 27, who are interested in dedicating a year to intentionally discerning a vocation to religious life. If this describes you, we invite you to contact us by completing the interest form at www.10000vocations.org/bethany-house

Jones will celebrate his first Mass of Thanksgiving here at St. Charles on Sunday, May 27 at 10 am. Fr. Jones joins an ever growing number of vocations from this parish that are the fruit of our persevering in praying for many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and Religious life. "O inestimable charity! Even as You, true God and true Man, gave Yourself entirely to us, so also You left Yourself entirely for us, to be our food, so that during our earthly pilgrimage we would not faint with weariness, but would be strengthened by You, our celestial Bread. O man, what has your God left you? He has left you Himself, wholly God and wholly Man, concealed under the whiteness of bread. O fire of love! Was it not enough for You to have created us to Your image and likeness, and to have recreated us in grace through the Blood of Your Son, without giving Yourself wholly to us as our Food, O God, Divine Essence? What impelled You to do this? Your charity alone. ...in the excess of Your love for Your creature, You gave to man the whole divine essence." - St. Catherine of Siena (Feast Day: April 29)

Please come and unite your prayers with Bishop Andrew Cozzens and the families of our Archdiocese as we celebrate the 71st Annual May Family Rosary Procession in honor of Our Lady of Fatima, Sunday, May 6, 2018.

Bishop Andrew Cozzens will lead our families in this Archdiocesan Family Rosary Procession from the State Capitol to our beautiful Cathedral. In the Cathedral, we will adore Jesus and entrust our precious families to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Gather at the State Capitol at 1:30 pm. Procession begins at 2 pm.

Those who cannot walk the Procession route may go directly to the Cathedral to pray the Rosary with those who are in procession via a speak system.

In these times of serious challenge and the breakdown of families, Our Lady once more holds out to us the power of the Most Holy Rosary. Come and entrust your family to her Immaculate Heart.
